Implementation of Online Systems for Labour and Vocational Training Related Public Services

The Ministry of Labour and Vocational Training ("MLVT") has issued Prakas No. 430/20 MLVT/Pr.K.CBN on the Implementation of Labour and Vocational Training Related Public Services via Online Systems ("Prakas"). According to the Prakas, the online systems were launched to strengthen the quality and effectiveness of public services, and foster transparency and accountability in the public sector. They were launched upon the request of the private sectors. These online systems are as follows:

- <https://lacms.mlvt.gov.kh/> for labour-related public services;
- <https://tvcms.mlvt.gov.kh/> for vocational training-related public services; and
- <https://fwcms.mlvt.gov.kh/> for foreign workforce-related public services.

The above systems are accessible from 11 January 2021 for those using the public services listed under the authority of the MLVT, and from 1 March 2021 for those using the public services listed under the authority of the Provincial/Municipal Department of Labour and Vocational Training and One Window Service Offices ("Sub-National Offices"). However, in the event that the employer or the employee cannot access the systems during the initial period of this implementation, he may still directly contact the MLVT or the Sub-National Offices for related public services.

In addition, employers and employees must be aware of the new public service fees set out in Joint-Prakas No. 335 MEF.Pr.K on the Public Services Provided by the MLVT dated 27 March 2020 when using the public services.
